Neighbourhood Watch meetings are cancelled till further notice

West Hobart Neighbourhood Watch are maintaining social separation and have suspended our monthly meetings at Lawrenny Court until further notice.

We will continue to produce our regular newsletter which is normally delivered but we will now distribute it digitally.

Feel free to print it out and share with our neighbours.

You can download and view the latest issue at <https://westhobart.wordpress.com/west-hobart-neighbourhood-watch/>

Support your local small businesses.

Current economic times are difficult, especially for our small businesses. We must support them now in order to ensure they still exist once the restrictions are lifted.

So next time you need to make a purchase, ask yourself, "is there a local business that will appreciate my patronage?"

Here's a thought...there are less crowds at a small independent business so you can more easily follow social distancing.

West Hobart Express 6.30am - 8 pm weekdays and 7am - 8pm weekends.

Verde 10am-5pm weekdays and 10am-3pm Saturday.

West Hobart Pharmacy, 9am-6pm weekdays and 9am-12 noon Saturday.

West Hobart Butcher 7am-5pm Monday to Friday, 8am-5pm Saturdays, 9am-4pm Sundays.

Adam's Store Mellifont Street, 7am-8pm weekdays, 8am-8pm weekends. Now with café and dining service.

Botanical 8.30am-5.30pm weekdays, 9am-1pm Saturday.
